Prayer of Confession

O Prince of Peace, from peace that is no peace, from the grip of all that is evil, from a violent righteousness,
deliver us.
From paralysis of will, from lies and misnaming, from terror of truth,
deliver us.
From hardness of heart, from trading in slaughter, from the worship of death,
deliver us.
By the folly of your gospel, by your choosing our flesh, by your nakedness and pain,
heal us.
By your weeping over the city, by your refusal of the sword, by your facing of horror,
heal us.
By your walk of suffering, by your humiliation, by your cross, heal us, deliver us, save us from ourselves, save us for each other. Amen.

Sending Forth

From where we are to where you need us,
Jesus, now lead on!
From the security of what we know to the adventure of what you will reveal,
Jesus, now lead on!
To refashion the fabric of this world until it resembles the shape of your kingdom,
Jesus, now lead on!

Scripture: Luke 19:28-41 (CEB)

28 After Jesus said this, he continued on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

29 As Jesus came to Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives, he gave two disciples a task. 30 He said, "Go into the village over there. When you enter it, you will find tied up there a colt that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here. 31 If anyone asks, 'Why are you untying it?' just say, 'Its master needs it.'" 32 Those who had been sent found it exactly as he had said. 33 As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?" 34 They replied, "Its master needs it." 35 They brought it to Jesus, threw their clothes on the colt, and lifted Jesus onto it. 36 As Jesus rode along, they spread their clothes on the road. 37 As Jesus approached the road leading down from the Mount of Olives, the whole throng of his disciples began rejoicing. They praised God with a loud voice because of all the mighty things they had seen. 38 They said, "Blessings on the king who comes in the name of the Lord. Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heavens." 39 Some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, scold your disciples! Tell them to stop!" 40 He answered, "I tell you, if they were silent, the stones would shout."

41 As Jesus came to the city and observed it, he wept over it.

Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet. And a light unto my path.

This Week's Walk

Walking as Suffering: Jesus' walk carrying his cross is known as the via dolorosa (way of suffering). Christians for centuries have found in Christ's last walk a point of solidarity with their own pain. It has helped them make sense of their suffering and grief and loss...as we bring our sufferings into communion with Christ's sufferings, we join our sorrow to his sorrow, our loss to his loss, our pain to his pain, and together we walk to the place of death. But we also walk past it, to the place of new life...Do you need to find your own Via Dolorosa? Is there pain in your life that no amount of ignoring or running from can banish? Pain that, unless you walk it all the way to the end, you will never get past? You have a good companion. He knows the way. Maybe today is a good day to start. (Mark Buchanan, God Walk, Chap 12)
