TRAIL GUIDE

Sunday, April 16, 2023
Series: WALK
Sermon: 'Keep Walking'

Scripture: Luke 24:13-35 (CEB) (Read verses 13-27 in your Bible...)

28 When they came to Emmaus, he acted as if he was going on ahead. 29 But they urged him, saying, "Stay with us. It's nearly evening, and the day is almost over." So he went in to stay with them. 30 After he took his seat at the table with them, he took the bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. 31 Their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he disappeared from their sight. 32 They said to each other, "Weren't our hearts on fire when he spoke to us along the road and when he explained the scriptures for us?"

33 They got up right then and returned to Jerusalem. They found the eleven and their companions gathered together. 34 They were saying to each other, "The Lord really has risen! He appeared to Simon!" 35 Then the two disciples described what had happened along the road and how Jesus was made known to them as he broke the bread.

Thy Word is a lamp unto my feet. And a light unto my path.

Trail Blazes (thoughts and ideas to guide you)

Next Steps for the Journey

How many times have you missed Jesus walking with you because you were 'looking down'? What allowed you to recognize his presence?

Have you let the Risen Christ interpret Scripture for you? How has this been helpful?

How does hospitality make a meaningful Christian witness both individually and in the life of the church?

How have you known Jesus in the breaking of the bread?

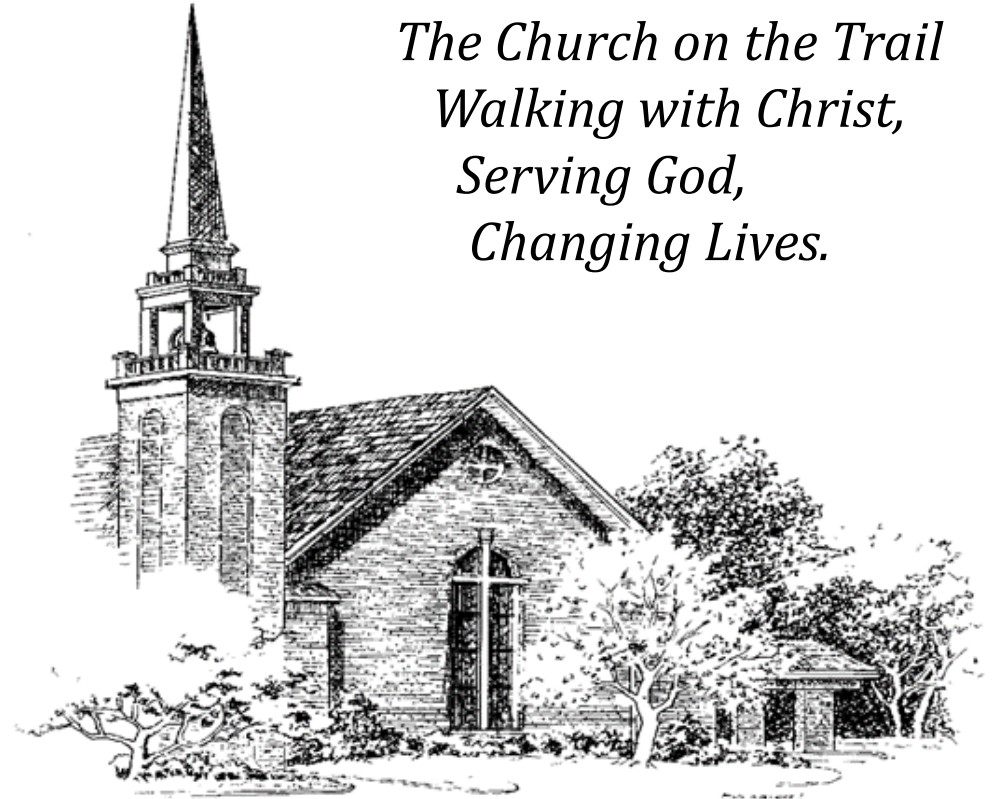

How can you walk with Christ, serve God, and change lives this Easter season?

This Week's Walk

'A good book, like a good story or a good sermon, is not done when it's over. It keeps bringing things to us and demanding things of us. That's how Jesus' parables work: not one is done when it's over...Every parable you hear needs you to finish it...take what is here and complete it. Make it your own. What I'm saying is, keep walking. God speed.' (Mark Buchanan, God Walk, Conclusion)
